HANAN'S WALKINGFAST. WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT THE HANAN SHOE.

MESSRS. ROGERS, PEET & CO.

Gentlemen: Having noticed in this morning Sun your advertisement concerning the Hanan's Waukenphast shoe sold by you, I cannot refrain from expressing, unsolicited, my satisfaction with pair which after a year's almost continuous wear, I am just about discarding. I had been accustomed to having my shoes made to order againg from 89 to 813 a pair for the same. Last summer—I mean a year ago—wishing for a satisfaction of the same. Last summer—I mean a year ago—wishing for a satisfaction of the same. Far ease and comfort on long trainps in the country I have never had their equal on my feet; while for durability they come about as near to the Iriahman's ideal as anything I ever saw. He said he "didn't care what kind of shoes he had so long as the uppers were indestructible and the soles were made of eternity." They have worn out the second sole and the uppers are still perfectly sound and whole. I am glad to add my testimony to their excellence, though a total stranger to the Hanan's or to any member of your firm, and you are as liberty to make any use of this communication you may see the MESSRS. It is stated that opposition is being offere on the part of certain individuals to the efforts in progress for the extermination of the cottony cushion scale in this city. I there are any persons in Sacramento se blind or indifferent, not only to their own good, but to that of the community in general, as to raise the least obstacle to th good work which the City Trustees and citizens have undertaken, a method should be found immediately, either under the pes law enacted last winter, or otherwise, to re move not only the opposition, but infested trees, etc., if necessary. The authoritie should not permit any cranky opposition to interfere for a moment with this al constration in Philadelphia to raise funds to assist in the Parliamentary election in Ireland, says: "Hon. A. M. Keiley, ex Minister to Austria, was the principal speaker." Mr. Keiley is the unfortunate entleman who was appointed by President Develand to represent the United States at ome, but the Italian Government refused point blank to receive him. He was then appointed to Austria and one or two other untries, with the same result, each Gov ernment sending word in advance that h would not be recognized. After this ex-perience of being unable to pitch his ten-in a foreign land, Mr. Keiley concluded he Seventh—County Boards have power to grant full-term certificates upon like certificates of other cities of California. > It is said that Secretary Manning's forth coming report to Congress will oppose any further redemption of Government bonds on the ground that it is not good financier ing to reduce the national debt, which bears only three per cent. interest, when the current rate is six. It is not probabl that the Secretary of the Treasury eve made so foolish a remark. The Govern ment purchases its bonds only when ther a surplus in the Treasury above the re airements for Governmental expenses, and is better "financiering" to stop thre per cent. interest than to permit such surplus to lie idle in the Treasury vaults There is no way for the Government to profit by the higher rate of interest unless it goes into the banking business and omes a lender, and Congress will never permit the Secretary to enter upon that se

Just how long the Government is goin permit the border boomers, or bummer march in and try to take forcible posses on of lands in Indian Territory, which ave been set apart to the Indians belemn treaty, and are now occupied b em, remains to be seen. If there is no making these frequent incursions can burrested, and properly dealt with by im posing examplary terms of imprisonment congress should pass such a law imme liately upon assembling. It is humiliating to the Government to be obliged to co stantly keep an army guarding these lands to prevent them being stolen by so-called "civilized" whites, from these "uncivil ized" redskins. If the facts were reversed and it were the Indians making such raids would be left to name his race. All the position of the case would be the com-placent remark that "the savage must giv

Court Items. In Department One of the Superior Court yesterday, when the case of The People vs. great bodily injury to T. M. Hotz, was called, Charles T. Jones, of counsel for the of July, August, September and October, prosecution, stated, on behalf of Mr. Hotz amounting to $70 50, were not allowed, owing to the fact that there was no prothat the latter was confident that a second of the case would result about the same as did the first-in a failure of the jury to agree—because no stronger evi-dence could be adduced than on the first hearing. He had been at trouble and expense in prosecuting the case, and thought he had done all in that respect, in the interest of law and good govern-ment, that could be expected of a good citizen. He had not desired, in the first place, to prosecute the young men, but the papers got hold of the matter, and rumors were circulated by people that he had been bought off. Under those circumstances, to protect himself, he had the defendants arrested. The defendants had suffered some punishment by being compelled to defend, and, as he was satisfied they could not be convicted, he desired the cases dismissed, as a saving of time, trouble and expense. Mr. Jones said he thought the District Attorney felt about as he did relative to the inability to convict and the advisability to dismiss. UNITED STATES OF COLOMBIA President Nunez of Colombia has issued the following decree: Section 1. From the 1st of December next the Custom-houses allowed by the law 53d of the year 1884 shall be established and begin to have their effect in the ports of Panama and Colon. Section 2. By the aforesaid Custom-houses the same duties shall be collected that are charged by the other Custom-houses in the Republic as "importation duties," with a reduction of 40 per cent.

Section 3. The other regulations common to the other Custom-houses will rule at the aforesaid ports. In accordance with this, the requisites of certifying the statement of cargoes (sobordos) and invoices, as enacted by Articles 41, 43, 47 and 48 of the fiscal code, must be duly enforced in foreign ports from which merchandise is embarked.

A meeting of the mercantile community of Panama has been held. A committee was appointed to secure the rescinding of the decree. The Panama Star and Herald thinks the decree onerous and unwise.

He had not desired, in the first place, to prosecute the young men, but the papers got hold of the matter, and rumors were circulated by people that he had been bought off. Under those circumstances, to protect himself, he had the defendants arrested. The defendants had suffered some punishment by being compelled to defend, and, as he was satisfied they could not be convicted, he desired the cases dismissed, as a saving of time, trou-ble and expense. Mr. Jones said he thought the District Attorney felt about which dismissal could be granted on stipu lation of satisfaction. Judge Van Flee tunity to come into Court and make Summers, Miss Boyle, Messrs. dey, Sambrook, Vinton, Montserratt and ller, and Misses Marshall and Francis. he central figure is that of the tramp and evict, by Mr. Summers. It was an adrable piece of character assumption, a onounced success, and an example of ing that arose to the higher levels of tramatic art. It is so well done, so natu al, true to life, and so faithfully express re of human motives, passions, fears and esires, that it entitles the artist to frank acknowledgment of ability of the order that has made more ambitious men reowned in dramatic walks. It is a study rom life, and indicates analytical and in-erpretative powers of an especially good order. Such careful studies and unexag erated dramatic pictures are not o frequent in this day of rant and extravagant dramatic situations hat this meritorious example can be passed by with ordinary notice. Having measured the possibilities of the part by a first night, it is expected that Mr. Sum-mers will present it with even greater vigor and depth of feeling to-night. Miss Boyle has an emotional and effective and very right, at the very point where she shoul nanifest deep and natural feeling, has cut er lines short and left her upon the stag the first act coolly and unmoved accept ng the astounding announcement that hose who have tenderly reared her as parents, are not her father and mother, but hat a rum-blossomed, rugged and coarse ld tramp is her father. In short, she is olunged from affluence and bridal prepara-ion into poverty and disgrace without any more ado or surprise on her part, than if she had heard of the postponement of an engagement for an opera night. In subsequent acts she is given, however, full scope for good work. So blundering is the mistake of the text. that the spirited lady sends word to the oress of her intention to so write into the eart for to-night as to make it conform to he probable action of ordinary human be ings on such occasions. This can very easily be done. The other characters were well taken, of which comment is reserved The piece was warmly received and the recalls sincere.
